NOTE FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

[Redacted]

Acting NIO for Economics

25X1

SUBJECT: Attached Report

1. Attached is the final summary report on Economic Development for Central America, pursuant to NSSD 2-85. This is a private copy for you (the report has not yet been released) which was handed to me by Bill Martin, Special Assistant to the President, who conducted the review in behalf of the National Security Council.

2. The intention is to present this study to the President, most likely in the context of an NSC meeting with a briefing.

3. Bill was very pleased with the CIA contribution, which is scattered throughout in the form of the economic backdrop, the alternative growth paths, and the country profiles.

4. [Redacted] DD/OALA, was responsible for the production of the CIA substantive contributions.
